Workers' Safety and Compensation Commission	Case Aide
Position Number(s)	Community(s)	Division/Region(s)
97-9951; 97-9971	Iqaluit, NU	WSCC NU

PURPOSE OF THE POSITION

The Case Aide provides support in higher level administrative work for the case management team. The Case Aide will provide the essential support to enable case management staff to prioritize their workload and focus on the primary function of adjudicating claims, returning injured workers to employment and reducing claims costs.

SCOPE

The Workers' Safety and Compensation Commission (WSCC) is a Crown Corporation of the Governments of the Northwest Territories and Nunavut that is directed by a Governance Council through the President & CEO. The WSCC headquarters operations are located in Yellowknife and regional operations in Iqaluit and Inuvik.

The WSCC promotes safe work places through education and prevention, and cares for injured workers through a system of no-fault compensation. The system is funded through the collection of assessments from employers and is governed by the Workers' Compensation Acts of the Northwest Territories and Nunavut.

The WSCC is committed to an environment free of racism and discrimination, where people feel safe when receiving services. This can be achieved by respectful engagement that acknowledges the importance of cultural differences and values Cultural Safety.

Reporting to the Supervisor, Case Management, and located in Iqaluit, the Case Aide is a front-line worker and a member of the WSCC's Case Management and Pensions unit. The Case Aide provides support functions to case management, which includes closing files, confirming invoices, reviewing files for disclosure, requesting information required for decision making, filing, pension transfers, creating payments, medical summaries, and records management. The work completed by the Case Aide assists the Claims and Review Committee staff in the decision process mandate under the Workers' Compensation Acts. Ensuring complete and accurate information is integral and essential for the decision processes of claims entitlement, medical aid and rehabilitation of injured workers.

Effective communication between the Case Aide and Case Management staff contributes to the recovery and rehabilitation of injured workers. Ineffective communication could result in process delays including adjudication, medical aid provision and rehabilitation services.
